Austin, TX - TGRN True Grit Roots Network, LLC (TGRN) & Dallas Moore announce a joint venture with Dallas Moore Outlaw Radio. Launching April 7, 2025, this new digital radio channel will be broadcast in America, Canada, and the United Kingdom, bringing a unique experience from one of the hardest working men in outlaw music today. Without the limitations of terrestrial and satellite broadcast, the digital broadcast is one click away with our free App to Alexa and Live365 player.

Jonathan “Oogie” Richards, CEO & Founder of TGRN, expressed his enthusiasm for the partnership: “Keeping to the mission of supporting roots music, our partnership with Dallas Moore is exciting and important in providing an authentic outlaw experience from one of the best in the scene today. With his combined musical talents from the stage to his love and experience on radio, Dallas is the ideal artist to bring an outlaw radio channel to TGRN.” Dallas says, “I first met Jonathan “Oogie” Richards as a fan of mine and in turn, I became an avid listener of his country and blues shows on TGRN True Grit Roots Network and we quickly became fast friends after meeting at several of my shows in Texas. I am beyond excited to be presented with the opportunity to partner up on the launch of Dallas Moore Outlaw Radio with TGRN True Grit Roots Network and looking forward to bringing our listeners the best of the best in the world of outlaw country, southern rock and all points in between, from classic to current hitting on all of the roots and branches, artists and influences that have made this music and lifestyle what it is today.”

About TGRN True Grit Roots Network, LLC (TGRN): TGRN champions independent artists while paying respect to the pioneers who shaped modern roots music. With decades of relationships with independent music artists who have played for the door, to winning Grammys, record labels, publicist, to festivals, music venues, and music societies & associations, we are an active participant in the music ecosystem. TGRN provides an important role in connecting artists, listeners, businesses, and brands across North America and Globally. More information at www.tgrn.net
